Valledunham's Great Speech.
The WEEKLY COURIER, issued to-day, contains the great speech in Congress of Hon. C. L. Vallandigham, of Ohio.

ANOTHER CAMPAIGN EXTRA.
We have issued another EXTRA COURIER containing eighteen columns of valuable and interesting political documents. In it will be found a full and correct copy of the Constitution adopted by the Confederate States of America, for which there has been such frequent inquiry; Gov. CHAS. S. MORRIS' powerful speech, delivered in this city June 15th, and other important articles useful for general circulation.

The EXTRA will be sent to clubs and persons ordering at $1.50 per 100 copies or $10 per 1,000. Parties will please give explicit directions as to how it should be forwarded. If ordered by mail, one cent for each copy must be sent to prepare the postage.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
To our Subscribers, Correspondents, and Exchanges in the Southern Confederacy.

We have to request our friends, correspondents and exchanges in the Confederate States to direct everything to us—
"LOUISVILLE COURIER,

THEATRE—REAPPEARANCE OF THE POPULAR AND FAMOUS ACTRESS AND DANCING MISS HENRY.
The SUPERB DRAMA OF THE DUMB GIRL OF GENOA—DANCED BY JENNIE HIGHT—SUNG BY MRS. HAMILTON—FAVOR OF THE LOTTERY TICKET—The theatre will be opened to-night with a very attractive bill and an excellent company, including, among other popular favorites, everybody's favorite, the charming and accomplished Jennie Hight. The opening piece is the fine melodrama of the Dumb Girl of Genoa, with Miss Jennie as Juliette. There will be a new and interesting variety of songs and dances by Jennie Hight. The performance will conclude with a re-creation of the Louisville Theatre for a night of two each week, will be hailed with satisfaction by all lovers of the drama. The play of the Dumb Girl of Genoa will be presented to-night with a most excellent cast, and we will venture to assert will be rendered in the most satisfactory manner. There is but one opinion in regard to Miss Jennie's dancing, and the Lottery Ticket is the most charming and interesting of farces; therefore, we can pretty safely predict a good house at the Theatre. We see by the advertisement that the prices have been reduced from the old standard—the lowest now, fifty cents, and a second tier twenty-five cents, a judicious change in view of the condition of the times.

LEON AND LIVINGSTON COUNTERS.—At a Convention of the Southern Rights party of Lyon and Livingston counties, held at Jones' Ferry, on the 13th inst., Geo. R. Merritt, Esq., was nominated as a candidate to represent the county in the Legislature. Mr. Merritt is an able and powerful advocate of Southern Rights, and will doubtless bear our standard successfully through the canvass.

SCARCITY OF COTTON IN THE NORTH.—A recent letter from one of the largest manufacturers in the East gives the stock of cotton in New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, all told, at about 9,000 bales while the stock in Louisville, Cincinnati, and Pittsburg is nearly exhausted. The same letter states that the best informed Eastern merchants are of opinion that there are sixty days cotton will be worth twenty cents a pound.

SPECIE LOSS.—In passing out the specie from on board the North Star, at New York, two boxes were lost, containing $10,000. The proper number of boxes passed to the tallyman at the specie lock, but the tally of the men on the dock was two short.

ANOTHER TERRIBLE EFFECT.—One effect of the blockade, the New Orleans Daily says, is that "there is one dollar a barrel cheaper than it has been for ten years."

Another Abolition Feat.—The Philadelphia Express, a Tory sheet, says the portrait of Ex-President Tyler has been taken from the rotunda of the Capitol, stripped of its frame, and hung head downwards in the rubbish room.

All those in the Second Legislative District of the City of Louisville, who are opposed to the war policy of the present Administration are invited to meet on Friday evening, the 10th inst., at West Main Hall, on Market between First and Brook streets, at eight o'clock.

AN ARMY.—The State of New York now has seventy-nine regiments in the field, a large proportion of which are in Washington or Virginia.

The Philanthropists in the army have proposed a reduction of the pay. Many of them in and about Washington threaten to resign if it is reduced.

VOTES FOR LINCOLN'S COERCIVE POLICY.

The vote in the House of Representatives on the bill for the collection of the revenue, in other words force bill, voting in the President's extraordinary powers, in our opinion repugnant to the Constitution and sound policy, under pretext of securing revenue, passed on the 10th inst., June 15th, was as follows:

WAR TAXES—IMPROVING THE PEOPLE.

Our people are not being ground to the earth by the war policy and despotism of the Northern Government, which imposes heavy taxes on labor, tea, sugar, and coffee, as well as property, yet the Union shrieks, and, notwithstanding all this, they care not to protest to stop the war, but rather urge on the Yanks to crush out the South. What then? Will that bring peace, trade, and commerce back to the North from the South? No, never! A people torn from their homes, and the five hundred million are expended, the two sections will be more widely separated than ever. There is a single case of taxation quoted by the Dayton (O.) Enquirer from a guardian of infant children, that the freemen and Unionists can consider with indignation.

I hold in trust for minor heirs $23,000, in State bonds, which, at six per cent. interest, yields $1,380 per annum, which I apply to the education and support of my wards.

The income, for the support of the wards, for the 1-20 of the capital of the country. As I cannot and ought not to diminish the income of the wards, I have, therefore, I look to see how I can pay the 1-20 without impairing the principal. I must pay it out of the interest, and support of my wards annually as long as the war continues—three or seven years. The 1-20 of $23,000 is $4,600, which I have to pay out of the $1,380 income, there will be $3,220 left. Out of that I must pay for the education and support of my wards, for the 1-20 of the capital of the country, which will be $4,600 per annum. I will, therefore, have to keep the education and support of my wards at $3,220 per annum, which is a heavy burden.

We think that before the war is ended, said bonds will be at more than 6 per cent. discount, that the guardian will have to sell the bonds to feed his wards, and that their education will be confined to washing, ironing, and mending, sewing, the luxury of going to school must be denied.

The Blockade Raised in Brownstown.
The Jackson Gazette states that the retrograde movement of an embargo against that "sea port." It will also be seen that the "Home Guard" fully understand the true position—neutrality.

Last Saturday one of Lincoln's custom agents arrived at Brownstown, and endeavored to stop the shipment of all contraband goods to the Southern Confederacy. He said he had a warrant from the Union, which was on their way from that point in the Southern part of the State, for the purpose of collecting the duties on the goods. The duties on the goods were to be paid to the Union, and the goods were to be sent to the Union, and the duties were to be paid to the Union.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES.

Important from Columbus—Proclamation of the President.
A. WISE—News from the Kanawha Army.

(Special Dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette.)
COLUMBUS, July 17.

I send you a copy of a proclamation by Henry A. Wise to the people of the Kanawha Valley. It was obtained by an officer of the Ohio volunteers from a Secessionist family near Haverwood.

REPLY, July 6, 1863.

To the true and loyal citizens of Virginia, on all the Ohio border, and more particularly to those of Jackson county, I would earnestly appeal to come to the defense of the Commonwealth, invaded and threatened by a ruthless and unscrupulous enemy.

None need be afraid that they will be deceived by the promises of the secessionists, who are now making a desperate effort to gain the support of the loyal citizens of Virginia, and to bring about a general insurrection against the Union.

You were Union men, so was I, and we had a right to be so until oppression and rebellion drove us to the secession of a second independence. The secessionist plumed himself by the Convention, and by a majority of more than 10,000 votes at the election, and he has now taken the oath of allegiance to the Union.

Henry A. Wise, Secessionist, has been elected Governor of Virginia, and he has now taken the oath of allegiance to the Union.

News from General Cox's brigade, received at the Capital this morning, states that a large number of our troops are now in the Kanawha Valley, and are ready to take the offensive.

(Special Dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette.)
WASHINGTON, July 17.

Official dispatches from Gen. McDowell state that a large number of our troops are now in the Kanawha Valley, and are ready to take the offensive.

The advance skirmishes of the Grand Army entered Fairfax County House this morning, and the secessionists were driven back.

Official dispatches to Gen. Scott, received to-night, state that the main division of the Union army is now in the Kanawha Valley, and are ready to take the offensive.

Gen. McClellan has a dispatch that several of our troops are now in the Kanawha Valley, and are ready to take the offensive.

The blockade camp was surprised a mile north of Fairfax by a rebel force of 1,000 men, and the Union army was driven back.

Thinking it was the advance of the main body of the rebels, the Union army was driven back.

For State Treasurer,
GOBBIAS TERRY, of Todd.

Money and Men—Taxes and Bayonets.

The principles upon which Mr. Lincoln was chosen to the Presidency are in conflict with the Constitution, subversive of free government, and destructive of the rights of the States and of individuals.

His election on the platform of a sectional party and the endorsement of his principles by the people of the free States, caused the separation of seven States from the Confederacy and the establishment of a new Government by the people thereof.

But this did not necessarily result in war, and consequently, though the first ordinance of separation was adopted by South Carolina in December, there were no hostilities until after the inauguration of LINCOLN on the 4th of March.

Mr. LINCOLN, deriving from the experience of other nations, was determined to enforce the seceded States into obedience to the Government of which he is the head and submission to the policy of the platform which he regards as his own.

Immediately after taking the oath to support the Constitution of the United States, he began preparations looking to the employment of force against the Confederate States, and recognition of the positions of the Constitution, the interests of the country, and his obligations to humanity, he has succeeded in inaugurating, and is now engaged in prosecuting, a war intended to deprive ten millions of freemen of the right to govern themselves, and which, if successful, will destroy at once and forever the Government established by our fathers.

The effects of this unnatural and wicked war are even now visible everywhere—in the city, the town, the country, in the counting-room, the workshop, the study, and the field.

In the three months that have elapsed since the people of the United States were startled by the War Proclamation of April 15th, business has been annihilated, suffering has been brought to the doors of our people, ruin and starvation have been made to stare many lately prosperous and happy in the face, and hope itself has almost been shut out from the hearts of our people.

The people of these States looked forward to the meeting of Congress on the 4th inst. with an abiding confidence that our people, ruin and starvation have been made to stare many lately prosperous and happy in the face, and hope itself has almost been shut out from the hearts of our people.

The President would recommend and the National Legislature adopt some measures looking to a restoration of peace to the country.

That Congress is now in session. The recommendations of the Executive to the Cabinet have been published that he who runs may read.

The hopes of the friends of the peace—the expectancies of the patriots of the land—are crushed. Those who began the war, those misguided men who have trampled under their feet the Constitution and "the statutes of the land and the decisions of all the tribunals of the land," have determined that the people shall drain to the verge the bitter cup they have prepared for them—are determined that there shall be no cessation of hostilities, no peace.

The war is to be continued until the impossibility of conquering a free people is demonstrated—that the people are agreed with the constitution which we bring that they will cheerfully submit to the despotism of a strong government, and consent to be slaves.

To this end, the President asked FOR BUNDLED THOUSANDS OF MEN, and a SUM OF MONEY, KENTUCKY'S SHARE OF WHICH WOULD BE AT LEAST FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR EACH HEAD OF A FAMILY IN THE STATE.

To raise this army, and pay this debt, Kentucky was expected to furnish at least thirty thousand men and twenty millions of dollars; and this was intended only to meet the expense for less than a single year!

But an obsequious Congress, whether from their own conviction of propriety or under the influence of the bayonets by which they are surrounded, it matters not that we inquire, not content with giving all that the author of our war demanded, voted FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND MEN AND FIVE HUNDRED MILLIONS OF MONEY.

Kentucky is expected to furnish her share of the additional man and dollars. It is true Kentucky has assumed a neutral position. It is true that she has protested against the war and the policy of the Administration that caused the war. But Mr. LINCOLN has repudiated her before the nation—has pronounced her policy of neutrality as worse than secession—has told her that he will not respect her wishes; and his minister plenipotentiary, Mr. HOLT, has solemnly and indignantly repudiated the sentiments of his countrymen.

The Administration is determined that Kentucky shall not be neutral—that she shall pay her share of the war debt—that she shall furnish her proportion of the army, and the friends of the Administration among us are endeavoring to aid him in bringing the crisis of the war to our own homes, and making our fair State the battlefield of contending nations.

People of Kentucky! You have heretofore sold your products, whether of your farms or of your shops, directly or indirectly to the South, and from the South you have received your incomes and derived your profits. Your trade with the South has been made treason by an edict of the President, and for selling your supplies to the enemy you are to be treated as traitors.

Will you furnish men to fight the battles of such a despotism, waged for such a purpose, against your friends?

Can you, fellow-citizens, with your trade ruined, annihilated, could you in the most prosperous days, pay twenty millions of dollars a year, to meet the extraordinary expenses of the Government?

The people of Kentucky have a deep, vital interest in this matter—let them take their care to the people of the corrupt demagogues who would betray them, and think well and solemnly and calmly of the consequences, before they act.

Lincoln and his Policy discussed by a Friend of the Administration—Continued in the previous issue.

It is a folly that it is to be done right in the future. It is to be done right in the future. It is to be done right in the future.

The following extracts from the Louisville Democrat, whose steady support of the Government the Chamberlain Commercial and other Northern papers avail, will be read with interest at this time, and we trust, not altogether without profit:

The Democrats North, who crowd around Lincoln on his way to Washington, sleep, no compromise! LINCOLN'S POLICY IS A FOLLY THAT IT IS TO BE DONE RIGHT IN THE FUTURE. IT IS TO BE DONE RIGHT IN THE FUTURE. IT IS TO BE DONE RIGHT IN THE FUTURE.

A couple of crazy editors in New York City, and at the back of the Northern mob, are endeavoring to do a little business. They feel that they are in a position to do a little business. They feel that they are in a position to do a little business.

They feel that they are in a position to do a little business. They feel that they are in a position to do a little business. They feel that they are in a position to do a little business.

THE FEDERAL ADVANCE.
FAIRFAX O. H. ABANDONED.
FEDERALS TAKE POSSESSION.
SEWELL'S POINT REINFORCED.
From Washington.
WASHINGTON, July 18.—Gen. McDowell's official account of his forward movement of the army from Fairfax to Warrenton, is published. It does not differ from the other accounts published.
It appears that the army and cavalry dashed through Fairfax at a gallop, in close column, and that the Confederates, following them, were defeated at Fairfax, and that the army was then moved to Warrenton, where it was defeated by the rebels.
At one o'clock all the enemies were in the neighborhood of Fairfax, as far as the army was concerned, and the army was then moved to Warrenton, where it was defeated by the rebels.
A step which had been taken on the 16th, and which had been intended to secure the strength of the army, was then taken, and the army was then moved to Warrenton, where it was defeated by the rebels.
